ABOUT TINA

Tina Jackson is a caregiver, rare disease advocate, global speaker, workshop presenter, and co-author of Suddenly Brave Together. She founded Kids Rare Care™ to mentor professional moms who have adolescents and young adults with a disability or complex medical conditions. Using her proven systems, she guides them through specific ways to increase their mom capacity while developing greater independence in their loved one.

She works with families and organizations to raise awareness, strengthen advocacy, and promote inclusion for people living with disabilities. Her daughter Tionna, known to everyone as Miss T, was born in 1995 with Trisomy 8 Mosaicism and was not expected to survive. Today Miss T lives in her own home with support, works, and shares the keynote stage with her mom.
